Belcher, and after seeing him he may refuse to act, can you not suggest the name of some fairminded man who has not yet taken any part in this discussion to go in his place?

Yours truly,

Walter Olney

Whereas there have been filed with the Sierra Club certain complaints against the management of the Yosemite Valley; and whereas it is the policy of this Club to give all such complaints a fair and just hearing and investigation, and at the same time to do entire justice to the Yosemite Valley Commission;

Now therefore, be it resolved that a Committee of five be appointed by the President of the Club to investigate all such complaints as are now on file with the Secretary or as may hereafter be made; said Committee to report at its earliest opportunity and to have full power to incur ^{such} expense ^{as may to them seem necessary} for the purpose of carrying ~~on~~ ^{the} investigations.
